Week #16 prompt:

LET'S TALK ABOUT ALLITERATION!

SWIPE TO LEARN MORE
Alliteration is the use of the same beginning sound in two or more words in a phrase or sentence. Here is an example of alliteration:

"Many mumbling mice are making midnight music in the moonlight."
- Dr. Seuss’s ABC by Dr Seuss

The "M" sound is being repeated here

Now you try!

She sells sea shells by the seashore and the shells she sells by the seashore are sea shells for sure.

What sound do you notice is being repeated here?

Did you know? Both Donald Duck and Wonder Woman have names that use alliteration!

Can you think of any other examples?
