Figurative Language: Identifying Alliteration

Alliteration is the use of the same beginning sound in two or more words in a phrase or sentence.

Example: My mother makes meatloaf for dinner.

*The letter M is repeated at the beginning of more than two words in this sentence.

Part 1

Directions: Identify the alliteration in the sentences below by circling all the words with the same beginning sound. Then write the sound on the line. An example has been done for you.

Example: Annie's apples rolled away in August
