Story Stones
Write Your Own Short Story

Example:
Veronica and her family went on vacation every summer and this year, she got to choose the destination. She sat on a chair by the lake and ate her ice cream as she watched the sun go down. Her brother was blasting music on his phone and ran around with their dog, Sparky. The calendar hanging in the cabin said school started in two weeks, but she would worry about that another day.