Did you like the book – why or why not?

What would be your 3 wishes?

Which would you rather have – a genie or a magic carpet?

If you could create your own land, what would it have?

Would you want to be a ruler of a kingdom? If not, what other role would you want in the kingdom?

Would you have told Jasmine the truth as soon as possible or would you keep your secret to yourself for as long as possible?

What did you think of the ending – for Jasmine and Aladdin and Abbas and Sultan Waleed?
